PART A Group Interaction

Below are some photographs of Hong Kong:

1  Victoria Harbour, one of the world's most renowned deep-water harbours, and where the British first colonized Hong Kong.	2  Hong Kong's Geopark, a UNESCO-listed wonder of volcanic rocks, cliffs and caves. One of Hong Kong's greatest natural attractions, yet hardly known to tourists or even locals.	3  This mind-boggling image captures the soaring apartment blocks in one of the world's most densely populated areas, Hong Kong.
4  One of Hong Kong's heritage attractions, the Chi Lin Nunnery, is a large temple complex of elegant wooden architecture and soul-soothing lotus ponds.	5  Po Lin Monastery, Lantau Island, Hong Kong. The colossal statue of the Great Buddha sits high on a hill, looking down upon countless visitors from around the world.	6  Always in motion, Hong Kong offers a diverse and exciting travel experience, featuring Chinese traditions, arts and culture.

Your group has been invited to select one of the above photographs to represent Hong Kong on the cover of a travel book. You may want to talk about:

- what attracts tourists to Hong Kong
- what each picture represents about Hong Kong
- which photograph should be chosen for the cover of the travel book
- anything else you think is important
